DEFYING THE MILITARY.

CAPT. COUCH, THE BOOMER, SENDS HIS DEFANCE.

More Troops Ordered Up—Prospects of Bloodshed—Applying the Starving Process—The Settling Dilemma—Pits—Late Manifestos.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Jan. 24.—Col. Martin, at Fort Leavenworth, is in receipt of a dispatch from Gen. Hatch in Oklahoma, stating that Couch had notified him that he would fight. The boomers are turning up cartridges, and mean business. Gen. Augur has ordered nineteen companies of troops to hold themselves in readiness to march at a moment's notice. A large supply of cartridges has been ordered from the east by express, to the number of 500 suits, for the troops in the field.

The starving process is still going on, but friends of the government have been thinking of the boomers' mistake in allowing any of the boomers to leave the territory until they go. It is thought that Couch is allowing the non-combatants to leave so that the provisions will last longer for the fighters, who will remain. The boomers are building rifle pits about their camp. Gen. Augur has ordered the troops here to hold themselves in readiness.

The boomers' fighting force is 400 well-armed and determined men. Capt. Couch has cleared his little army of desperadoes and disolute fellows who could not be controlled or would be likely to violate orders and fire on their assailants without provocation. They are so surrounded that they cannot escape in any numbers without collision with the regular military forces. Col. Hatch's force about equals that of the boomers and consists of colored troops of the Twenty-fourth infantry. That is the crack rifle-shoot regiment of the army, and they are good soldiers.

Col. Hatch, who is ordered to clear the settlers out of Oklahoma, has been in the army twenty-four years. He was severely wounded twice during the rebellion—once it was thought fatally. He was twice promoted for gallant conduct in battle. Col. Hatch is known to be personally averse to the work which he now has in hand, and is constrained to undertake it only by the fact that he believes that he will not fire on the boomers unless attacked by them.

The boomers have issued a manifesto declaring: "We are not here to defy legal authorities. We are here to law-abiding citizens, and demand our rights as such under protection of the law. The law gives us the right to live on any lands belonging to the United States when the Indian title is extinguished, whether it is surveyed or unsurveyed, offered or not offered."

Notwithstanding this the United States army is employed again to eject us. We deny their right to do so, and shall refuse to submit to it. We desire no conflict with the United States troops. All our colonists are good, loyal men, and we have the right to live on the lands of the United States. Col. Hatch has issued a notice to Couch's people in which he says that the killing of any soldier in the future will be held in the courts, and will be held in the courts. He adds: "None will regret more deeply such a result than the commanding officer and the officers serving under him. The responsibility must rest entirely with you."

To you, as to all citizens, legislation is open to settle any grievances. There is no necessity to resort to arms. Should the collision occur to which it is the intention of your leaders to lead, the military will not be responsible for loss of life or stock from roving bands of Indians who will seize the opportunity to inflict injury, and all trouble can easily be avoided by observing the following caution of the president of the United States and possibly leaving the territory, as directed."

Apprehensions as to Gen. Stewart's Safety. LONDON, Jan. 24.—The indications regarding the plight of Gen. Stewart's troops in the Mattemeh desert become more portentous day by day. The first dispatch from Gen. Stewart's camp, which was received at the War Office, was that he had just received at war quarters. It was opened and read with nervous anxiety by the officials, but it neither confirmed nor abated their fears.

Gen. Stewart's troops are in a desperate straits. The officials are fearful of the condition of affairs in the desert. He believed Gen. Stewart to be safe, but in any case it would be impossible to help him for several days. The officials are fearful of the condition of affairs in the desert. He believed Gen. Stewart to be safe, but in any case it would be impossible to help him for several days.

Arthur Will Resume His Law Practice. WASHINGTON CITY, Jan. 24.—The Star learns that on leaving the White House Mr. Arthur will resume his law practice in New York and devote his time to it. He has a very handsome suite of office-rooms, which he visited on his last trip to New York, and directed them to be refitted in excellent style for his occupancy after March 1. His law practice will be in cases growing out of riparian rights. The Star's informant said he did not think Mr. Arthur would be a candidate for the presidency in 1888. Congress people concur in this opinion.

Regular Freight Rates Reduced. New York, Jan. 24.—At a meeting of the truck line executive committee Friday afternoon the reduced freight rates were reduced from the basis of 75 cents, first-class, to the basis of 50, 40, 30, 25 and 15 cents to fifth classes respectively to Chicago, to take effect on Monday. The cause was that some lines had made contracts on the latter basis. All are thus placed on an equal footing.

It is not our custom to make any mention of articles advertised in our columns, but we do not hesitate to speak in high terms of the "Garland Stoves and Ranges." The manufacturers desire to protect the very best that can possibly be made, which accounts for the high reputation which they have obtained is the best in the world.

Nothing Means About Chicago. New York, Jan. 23.—The Sun editor remarks: "Chicago has been some time the diversion of business from Chicago to its rivals. Chicago is all right. Her citizens haven't lost those remarkable business qualities which have made Chicago famous among the cities of the world. Chicago 'organization' has offered 'to be present at the inauguration ceremonies provided the committee having those matters in hand will pay all their bills. Chicago is not expected from the time of leaving home until their return. There is nothing mean about Chicago."
